

The national status quo in Portugal and Poland and the current EU legislation

Programme

3:20pm

Welcome Session

Professor Sofia Oliveira Pais (UCP)

3:30pm

Opening Session

Chair: Professor Benedita Menezes Queiroz (UCP)

Silvia Rainone (ETUI) – EU guidelines on collective bargaining and competition law: broader scope of labour rights or a third category?

Professor Adrián Tolodí Signes (Universidade de Valencia) – Regulation of platform work in Spain

Érica Silva (Legal Adviser) – Humanitarian legal pathways for migrants in Portugal

4:00 pm

Competition Law

Chair: Joana Campos e Matos (UCP)

Professor Sofia Oliveira Pais (UCP) – The competition law framing of digital platforms

Professor Agata Jurkowska-Gomulka (UITM) – Collective bargaining and competition law: in search for a balance

4:30 pm

Labour Economic Perspective

Chair: Luísa Ramos Naia (UCP)

Professor Ana Teresa Ribeiro (UCP) – The qualification of platform workers under labour law and their access to collective bargaining

Marta Prata Domingos (UCP) – Access to social security regimes

Łukasz Cywiński (UITM) – Job offers in gig economy

5:00 pm

Migrations

Chair: Ricardo Rodrigues de Oliveira (UCP)

Sergio Tavares Marques (UCP) – Trends in the protection of migrant workers in the EU

Sylwia Mazur (UITM) – Inclusion of third-country nationals into the EU labour market: Legal challenges